PREFACE

Several years ago at the annual Goldsmith reunion a request came for a new family record of "The Descendants of Joseph Goldsmith 1796 - 1876". The persons named below were chosen to work on it. After some years and quite a few delays the work finally came to the point where the new family record became a reality. We found the task of getting this material together to be both interesting and enjoyable. We soon realized that without the help and cooperation of the rest of the families we could not have accomplished the task. We are thankful for all the help given to us.

Special mention should be made of Dr. Melvin Gingerich, who furnished the historical account of the Goldsmith family, and also of Mrs. Clair Boshart, Mrs. Fred Klopfenstein, Milton G. Augspurger, Mrs. Edd Wittrig, and especially Mrs. Bertha Wood, who faithfully furnished the entire list of Nancy (Goldsmith) Roth family names which comprise one-fourth of the total number.

You will soon discover that the list is not always complete nor without errors. In some cases we tried to contact families without success, and in other cases there crept in errors that may easily occur when the material is copied several times. We tried to keep this to a minimum.

We trust that this little book may bring to you a appreciaion of our heritage and of those who bear the family name of our common ancestor.

HOW TO USE THE BOOK

Charles A. J. 1164502-2.50

This book consists of twelve sections, one for each of Joseph Goldsmith's children. The name at the top of each page is that of one of the twelve children. Counting Joseph Goldsmith and his wife as the first generation, their twelve children, therefore, are the second generation. Their names are underlined, as, for instance, JOHN. The succeeding generations, the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th, are in indented columns, with a separate column for each generation. One can, therefore, easily determine to which generation an individual belongs by noting in which column his or her name appears. The names of all direct descendants of Joseph Goldsmith are in capital letters. Each family has a serial number which is referred to in the index. The number in parentheses is the reference number indicating to which immediate family this person belongs.

EUROPEAN BACKGROUNDS

Joseph Goldsmith, the ancestor of the branch of the Goldsmith family concerned in this study, came to America from Alsace Lorraine in 1819. The location of his home in Europe is found in the family record of the Goldsmith Bible, now in the Archives of the Mennonite Church, Goshen, Indiana. The record is in German Script, and is given in translation below:

“My father’s name was Conrad Goldschmidt and was born in Markirch, Alsace. He died in 1817 and left three sons and three daughters. My mother’s name was Katherine Koenig and was born in Nimburg, district Emmendingen, Grand Duchy Baden. She died January 1, 1836. I am the fourth of the above mentioned six descendants of Konrad Goldschmidt. I was born on the Tannzapfen-Muhl (Pine Cone Mill) near Rapperswyr in Alsace, March 19, 1796, and arrived in Philadelphia on the 18th of June of the year 1819. In the year 1824, the 4th of January, I was married to Elisabetha Schwartzentraub. My wife was born in Lich in the Wetterau (hochen Solens) on the 17th of February, 1807.”

The town Lich is located 40 Kilometers north of Frankfurt in the Wetterau in Oberhessen. The writer was unable to locate Nimburg and Rapperswyr in a large German Atlas, but Emmendingen in Baden is located 20 Kilometers east of the Rhine and 45 Kilometers south of Strassburg.

The new Mennonite Encyclopedia has the following account of the Goldsmith family:

“Goldsmith (Goldschmidt) is a Mennonite family of Swiss origin. More than 200 years ago several Mennonite Goldschmidt brothers migrated from Richterswil, Switzerland, and settled in the region of Markirch (Sainte Marie aux Mines), Alsace. All of the present Goldschmidts living in Alsace, France, and Switzerland descend from these brothers. One branch of the family settled in the region of Bazel, Switzerland, more than a century ago. Fritz Goldschmidt, elder of the Basel Holeestrasse and the Schanzli Mennonite congregations, is a member of this family. Charles Goldschmidt, elder of the Hang congregation, Alsace, is a nephew of Fritz Goldschmidt. Henri Goldschmidt is a preacher in the Pfastatt congregation, Alsace. The great grandmother of J. S. Gerig, Smithville, Ohio, was Mrs. Christian Gerig, nee Elizabeth Goldschmidt, of Markirch, and therefore the Ohio Gerig families are descendants of the Markirch Goldschmidts.”

“Joseph Goldsmith, the fourth child of Konrad Goldschmidt, Markirch, emigrated to America in 1819 and after residences in Pennsylvania, Ontario, and Ohio, moved to Iowa, where he served as a bishop of the Amish Mennonite churches in Lee and Henry counties. M. G.”

In the 1930’s Reverend Henri Goldschmidt of Mulhausen, France, offered his assistance in tracing the European ancestry of the family and brought the Iowa Goldsmiths into contact with a cousin of his, Jules Rebert—Goldschmidt of Markirch, Haut Rhin, France. Mr. Rebert-Goldschmidt, who has made a hobby of genealogy, spent much time in making trips to gather official records concerning the European background of our family. There is a compiled chart of his findings in the Archives of the Mennonite Church, Goshen, Indiana. According to this chart the father of Konrad Goldschmidt and therefore the grandfather of Joseph Goldsmith was Jacques Goldschmidt, but back of Jacques the records are not clear. Some of the European Goldsmiths are descendants of Joseph Goldsmith's brother, Henri. As yet we do not know all of the names of the three daughters of Konrad Goldschmidt living at the time of his death.

Recently there has been made available to us the Goldsmith family records in the possession of the Mennonite minister, Fritz Goldschmidt of Basel, Switzerland. In these records is the following statement:

"1. The brothers, Johannes Goldschmidt, living in Allschwil, canton Baselland, and Jakob Goldschmidt, living in the bordering village of Neuwiller, in Upper Alsace, desired to be recognized as citizens of the canton Zurich and the community Richtersweil, based on their descent from a Heinrich Goldschmidt, who on the 15th of January, 1691, was born in Richtersweil as a local citizen and died on February 17, 1755, in Markirch, Alsace, and based on the fact that neither they nor their parents and ancestors had ever renounced their Zurich citizenship nor obtained the citizenship of another state.

"This 'house book' was started in 1772 by Heinrich Goldschmidt with the following remarks about his family:

"His grandfather Heinrich Goldschmidt was born on January 15, 1691, at Richtersweil, canton Zurich, and died on the 17th of February, 1755, at Markirch, Alsace. He left two children, Jacob and Elisabeth Goldschmidt by name. His (the writers) father was born Feb. 2, 1722, and died March 16, 1771, and left eight children with the mother, Barbara Fretz. He, Heinrich G., was born the 1st of June, 1748, and married Barbara Gingerich at Essington near Landau on Aug. 23, 1771."

FAMILIES RELATED TO THE JOSEPH GOLDSMITH BRANCH

It has been stated that the mother of Joseph Goldsmith was Katherine King or Koenig, and that his uncle was Benedict King. We have a record of two of Reverend King's daughters. One of them was Jacobina, who married Peter Slonaker, and the other was Elizabeth, who married Jacob Sloneker. Jacobina and Elizabeth, therefore, were first cousins of Joseph Goldsmith. Reverend King had two brothers whose first names we do not have. One of these brothers was the father of Mrs. Jacob Schlatter, Jacob King, Barbara King, Magdalena Schlatter, and Anna King. These five were first cousins to Joseph Goldsmith and his twelve children were second cousins to the children of the foregoing mentioned five. The children of Mrs. Jacob Schlatter were Joseph Schlatter, Mrs. Trechel, Jacob S. Schlatter, and Mrs. John Eicher, and therefore, they were second cousins to Mrs. Sebastian Gerig, and her brothers and sisters. Jacob King married the widow of Christian Augspurger II. They had one child, Mrs. Roose of Pulaski, Iowa, who, too, was a second cousin to Mrs. Sebastian Gerig. The third of the Kings in the above mentioned family married a King, and they had one son, Daniel King, again, a second cousin to the twelve Goldsmith children. The fourth of the Kings was Magdalena, who, too, married a Schlatter. They had a daughter who married a Brenneman. There were four Brenne- man children by this union, Mrs. Bussey, Mrs. Duffenbauch, Mrs. Ramseyer, and Mrs. Daw. These four were third cousins to the generation including Frank Goldsmith, John Wenger, Henry Wen- ger, and Jacob Gerig. Harry Ramseyer of Washington, Ia., there- fore, is a fourth cousin to Vernon Gerig or Alice Goldsmith.

The other brother of Katherine (King) Goldsmith, and, there- fore, uncle of Joseph Goldsmith had two children, John and Jacob. This John King had three children, Joseph, Mrs. John Gram of Lee County, Iowa, and Mrs. John Henderick. These last three were second cousins to Mrs. Sebastian Gerig. (Much of the in- formation in the foregoing paragraphs was received from rela- tives in Davis County, Iowa. Before it receives the historian's final approval, one should verify it by comparing it with family records.)

The book Mennonites of Butler County, Ohio, by W. H. Grubb, gives the name of one of Joseph Goldsmith's sisters. Her name was Catherine and she married Christian Gauchy. Their child- ren were Magdalena (wife of Reverend Nicholas Augspurger), Christian, Jacobina, Benjamin, and Henry. These five were first cousins to Mrs. Sebastian Gerig.

Joseph Godsmith had a brother in America whose name per- haps was Jacob. This man was married to Catherine Schlatter, who died Sept. 4, 1878, aged 87 years. He had two children, Jac- ob and Katherine. Jacob married a Miss Egly. There were five boys and three girls in Jacob's family. One of the sons of Jacob was Joseph of Lafayette, Indiana, who visited his cousins in Henry County, Iowa, in perhaps 1878-1879. Joseph has a son named Joseph R. Goldsmith and his Goldsmith first cousins are third cousins to the writer of this account and to all those in the fourth generation of his reunion. A brother of Joseph Goldsmith of Lafayette, Indiana, lives in Spencerville, Indiana. His name is Henry Goldsmith. He is second cousin to Frank Goldsmith of Wayland, Iowa.

The other child of Joseph Goldsmith's brother was Katherine, who was born in Alsace on June 15, 1827, and died Feb. 27, 1905. On August 3, 1848, she was married to Henrich Egly. (Henrich Egly was born April 5, 1824. He was the son of Abraham Egly and Magdalena Reber, who were married in March of 1819 by Reverend Benedict King). Katherine Goldsmith Egly had eight children. Magdalena, the oldest has a child in Bloomington, Illinois, and one in Toledo, Ohio. Jacob, the second child, is in Adams County, Indiana. Henry J. is in California, Samuel in Geneva, Indiana, Joseph in Phoenix, Arizona, Abraham in Adams County, Indiana, C. G. in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, and Katherine (Clanden) in Valparaiso, Indiana, in 1935. If our records are correct these eight are second cousins to Chris Wenger, Wayland, Iowa, Mollie Goldsmith, Wayland, Iowa, J. F. Gingerich, Kalona, Iowa, and to the rest of the generation they represent.

In Europe there are a number of distant cousins, among them being Reverend Henri Goldschmidt and Reverend Pierre Goldschmidt, both of Muhlhausen, France. Another one is Reverend Fritz Goldschmidt of Basel, Switzerland, who is district superintendent of the Mennonite churches in that part of Switzerland and Germany. He has a brother in business in Kansas City, Missouri, whose name is Christ Goldsmith and address 1323 East Ninth. The father of Christ and Fritz was John Goldschmidt, who died at Basel some years ago. John Goldschmidt's father was also named John. Chris Goldsmith reported that his brother has a family Bible containing many family records. An uncle of Fritz and Chris Goldsmith was Pete Goldsmith of Fulton County, Ohio. Chris Goldsmith also reported that their family has Goldsmith relatives in Missouri, who came to America at least 112 years ago.

II

A REVISED COPY OF THE FIRST HISTORY OF THE FAMILY

(Originally written by S. P. Goldsmith for one of the first reunions).

Joseph Goldsmith was born in Alsace-Lorraine, France, on March 19, 1796. He desired to come to America and so he borrowed money from a relative and emigrated to America in 1819, landing at Philadelphia. He was then a young man 23 years of age. His first employment was chopping wood. In later years he often stated to his family that the first few months of his struggles in this country made him much discouraged, and he often wished he could return to Alsace, but as he became better acquainted with American ways he learned to love his new home land.

A few years later Elizabeth Swartzendruber and her mother obtained money from a relative to come to America, and they also landed in Pennsylvania. Elizabeth was born in Hesse, Germany, Feb. 17, 1807. As strangers Joseph and Elizabeth met in America and soon became acquainted and in love with each other. They were married Jan. 4, 1824.

Sometime in the early spring of 1824, Joseph decided to move to Canada. Elizabeth did not wish to go but as an obedient woman consented to go with her husband. They made this trip in a two-wheeled covered wagon, drawn by a yoke of oxen.

As Joseph had united with the church in France in the year 1812 and was a church worker he was called to the ministry in 1824. He was the first Amish Mennonite minister ordained in Canada.

In the year 1831 the family moved to Butler Co., Ohio. There he was ordained a bishop in the Amish church in 1838.

While living in Ohio, grandfather went security in a note to help a friend get a start, and when the note became due, he had it to pay. This left the family in bad shape financially. He was undecided as to what to do but thought he could get a start easier by going west. The oldest daughter Katherine, and her husband, had once lived in Iowa. Early in the spring of 1846, his eldest son, John, in company with others came to Iowa. After harvest Joseph, his son Peter, and daughter Lydia, came to Iowa. They all began to get a home ready for the rest of the family. The men worked in the timber and husked corn on shares, receiving one bushel out of five for husking. In this way they stored up corn to feed during the winter and to use for the family bread.

Late in the fall the eldest son, John, returned to Ohio, to bring the rest of the family to Iowa. They got on board the steamboat at Cincinnati, Ohio, with tickets for Keokuk, Iowa. As the river began to freeze before they got to Keokuk, they were unloaded at Hannibal, Missouri, on or near Christmas day, 1846. From Hannibal they took the wagon trail to near St. Paul in Lee County, Iowa, to a two room loghouse. The only conveyance they had was a one-horse wagon and one horse to draw all of their belongings. Grandmother and one or two of the smaller children were not able to walk and so they rode in the wagon most of the time, the rest of the family walking.

Late in the fall of 1852 they had just completed the building of a new frame house and had their cellar stored full of provisions for the winter. Sometime in the month of January at the noon hour their house caught fire and burned down, destroying all of their provisions and most of their clothing. The only place for the family to move to was an old wash-house, with an old workshop joined to it. This building was supplied with an open fire place for their cooking and heat. The smaller children were compelled to live among the neighbors until the new house was built. Good neighbors helped cut down trees and dragged the logs to the sawmill with oxen. In the course of six weeks a new frame house had been built.

With all of his hard luck, Joseph continued his church work. In Lee County he organized the first Amish Mennonite congregation in the state of Iowa, in 1855. He organized congregations in Johnson and Henry counties also.

In 1855 the family moved to Henry County, Iowa, where Joseph and Elizabeth Goldsmith spent the remaining days of their lives. Joseph was called by death April 26, 1876, aged eighty years, one month, and seven days. His wife, Elizabeth, was called by death August 18, 1900 aged ninety-three years, six months, and one day.

In this family were born twelve children, six sons and six daughters. They were noted as a long-lived family. The eldest daughter, Katherine, was called by death at the age of 59 years, 9 months, and 2 days. The rest of the family have nearly all reached three score and ten, and some nearly reached the ninetyeth year. There are still living (1924) Jacob and Nancy, the twins, and Magdalena, the baby. These children were all reared in the country on the farm and were taught to work. By the sweat of their brows they earned their daily bread.

III

JOSEPH GOLDSMITH, A CHURCH LEADER

The character of Joseph Goldsmith is perhaps best revealed by his work as a minister of the Gospel, the work which he loved and which he carried on with much zeal, devotion, and sacrifice. The way in which he entered into that service is shown by the many trips he made for the purpose of bringing the Gospel to others. As early as 1849, he made a trip from Lee County to Johnson County for the purpose of conducting the first regular religious services for the Amish Mennonites of that county. An old grandmother of that community said a few years ago that he visited their church regularly several times a year until their congregation was organized in 1851, and after that date he visited them occasionally. She said that they considered him a very able speaker and that they were always very much pleased when they heard that he would preach for them. But this was not the extent of his travels. Grandmother Swartzendruber of Pulaski remembered distinctly two occasions when Joseph Goldsmith preached in Davis Co., and she says he preached in their church occasionally for a period of six years. During the latter part of this period he lived in Henry Co., and so he must have made the trip to Davis Co., from that place several times.

Nor were his journeys confined to Iowa communities, for in 1862 he attended the Amish Mennonite church conference in Wayne County, Ohio, the first conference of this type ever held in this country, and in 1866 he was present at a similar conference at Danvers, Illinois.

The active part he took in those two conferences shows us that he was a man of influence among his fellow ministers. In the conference of 1866 he served on an important committee that was appointed to determine the standing of a certain man in the conference who had been involved in some trouble with a fellow church member. In the first conference he attended, he raised a question concerning a certain church practice about which there was a difference of opinion. From the answers given him one concludes he must have been courageous in raising the question, that he was frank in his attitude towards his fellow preachers, and that he was open-minded, ready to receive advice and suggestions.

At a meeting held in the home of Jeseeph Goldsmith in Butler County, Ohio, on May 8, 1835, the main Amish Mennonite congregation was divided into the Augspurger and Hessian congregations. But there was another group organized at about the same time known as the Collinsville congregation, under the leadership of Joseph Goldsmith and his uncle, Benedict King. This congregation, it seems, did not take sides with either of the two contending factions. His attitude would seem to indicate that he disliked strife and was willing to withdraw from a scene of conflict.

When Joseph Goldsmith was ordained a minister in 1824, he was only twenty-eight years of age. He labored in his calling the rest of his life, which was a period of fifty-two years. The first Amish Mennonite church in Canada was organized in Wilmot Township, Ontario, in 1824. In that year the first ministers were ordained for that church. There were Joseph Godsmith and John Brenneman and a deacon Jacob Kropf. These three were ordained by Bishop John Stolfusz of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Fourteen years later Joseph Goldsmith was ordained to the office of bishop, the highest office conferred upon one in the Amish church. It was his uncle Benedict King, who ordained him to this position in Butler County, Ohio, in 1838.

One of the duties of a bishop in his denomination was to perform all marriage ceremonies for his people. The records show that he married many young people. In the Marriage Record Book No. 1 in the court house at Ft. Madison, Iowa, there are listed the ministers of the Gospel authorized to solemnize the rites of matrimony. Among the names is that of Joseph Goldsmith, who was licensed to perform this rite in Lee County on Mar. 27, 1848. (In this record book is listed the marriage of Benjamin Goldsmith to Magdalena Hauter on June 1, 1854, by John Ford-enwalt.)

The first marriage ceremony that he performed in Henry

County seems to be the one on March 15, 1853, when he joined in matrimony, Christian Bechler and Barbara Conrad. The second one was the marriage of Daniel Eicher and Magdalena Rich on July 8, 1855.

IV

JOSEPH GOLDSMITH'S BUSINESS LIFE

It is impossible to discover all of the motives that prompted Joseph Goldsmith to migrate to America, but it seems likely that the economic opportunities of this country had their attraction in his thinking. To Pennsylvania in 1819, to Ontario in 1824, to Ohio in 1831, and to Iowa in 1846 suggests that he was the type of pioneer immortalized in Hamlin Garland's Son of the Middle Border. Goldsmith was doing what thousands of others were doing during those same years. He was attempting to find a location in which economic security could be found,—to find a place where he could build a home for himself and for his family, secure from privation and poverty when old age came.

It must have been extremely disappointing to him when he learned that he must pay a note for a friend whom he had attempted to help, for this payment meant that the economic security he had won through hard labor was destroyed. At fifty years he once more loaded his possessions and left for the frontier, taking everything he owned in a one-horse conveyance. The new life in Iowa was not easy. There were disappointments to be met that must have tested him severely. One of these occurred when his house burned down in January of 1853, destroying the family food supplies and most of the clothing.

But he must have prospered in spite of these setbacks. The Iowa state census of 1850 states that he had in his possession 200 acres of land worth $3000. It shows too that he owned $100 worth of farming implements, eight horses, seven cows, four working oxen, ten other cattle, twenty sheep, and one hundred twenty swine. The value of this live stock was $600. He also owned 600 bushels wheat, 3000 bushels corn, 300 bushels oats, and 25 bushels barley. During the year he produced 200 pounds of butter and had slaughtered $323 worth of animals.

Other facts of interest under economic considerations have to do with the location of the farms he owned. The Lee County records show that he bought a farm west of West Point, Iowa, recording the deed Sept. 4, 1851. The location was E $\frac{1}{2}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$ 35-69-6. This farm is situated 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles west and $\frac{1}{2}$ mile north of West Point. He also owned land five miles north-west of this location buying it on July 25, 1853 in the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of 16-69-6.

There has been some question concerning the date when he moved from Lee County to Henry County, Iowa. One finds in the deed records at Ft. Madison that he sold his land in sections 16 and 35 on October 20, 1855. The land records of Henry County show that five days later on October 25, 1855, he bought 200 acres of land in that county. When the census records were taken in Henry County in the early part of 1856 according to the records in the Archives at Des Moines, there were living in that county Joseph Goldsmith and his wife, and their children, Lydia, Peter, Christian, Elizabet, Jacob, Nancy, Fanny and Magdalena. At the same time the only members of the Goldsmith family in Lee County were John Goldsmith (31), Mar G. (23), Dinah G. (16), and Ellen G. (1).

There are other sources of information on this subject. The Biographical Review of Henry County, Iowa (Hobart Publishing Company, Chicago, 1906) states that Joseph Goldsmith lived on his Lee County farm nine years after coming to Iowa in 1846. It also states that after selling his Lee County farm in 1855 he purchased land in Henry Co. Another Henry County history in the State Historical Library at Des Moines states that the Goldsmith family moved to Henry County in 1855.

REMINISCENCES

There are a number of stories concerning Joseph Goldsmith that have come down to us orally. One of these had to do with his departure for Canada. According to the account his newly wedded wife did not wish to go to Canada, nor was his mother-in-law, who stayed with them, anxious to go. His wife, however, consented to make the journey, and preparations were made for the trip. The two-wheeled wagon drawn by a yoke of oxen was being loaded when the mother-in-law inquired, "We sell kist hin?" (Where shall my chest be placed?) By this they knew that she had now decided to go along. She remained with them as long as she lived. Her last home was in Henry County, Iowa, where she died in 1861. On her tombstone, west of Trenton, Iowa, one reads Catherine Swartzendruber, March 1861. Aged 88 yrs.

Another account tells us that although Joseph Goldsmith was an invalid for some time preceding his death, this did not keep him from performing some of his functions as a bishop in his church. It is said that he married at least one couple in his bedroom after he was confined to his bed.

Although the family left Canada in 1831, the older members of the Amish Mennonite church in which he had labored still speak of him in terms of highest praise. (1935). There is in the Mennonite Historical Library at Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana an old hymnal that contains the signature of Joseph Goldsmith. This German hymnal (an Ausbund) was found some years ago in Ontario by H. S. Bender, while he was doing a piece of historical research in that region.

Back in September, 1925, the Goldsmith family was given much publicity by the newspaper articles of Alex Miller, a Washington, Iowa, newspaper editor and correspondent and chautauqua lecturer. In the September 14 issue of the Davenport Democrat appeared this headline: "Wayland Twins, 84, Iowa's Oldest Descendants of a Sturdy Amish Pioneer." Below the headline was a picture of Mrs. Nancy Roth and Jacob Goldsmith. In his lengthy article giving the history of the family he says, "This seems to us an amazing record for one family. All were useful citizens of the country to which their father came. The influence of this one man who was preacher has extended far and wide."
